~ SILENCE ~

Silence inspires me. Silence encourages me. Silence helps me To enter into my heart-temple And meet with my Inner Pilot.

We must be loyal To our heart's Silence-life.

My heart's silence-light Is the answer Of all answers.

God wants me To serve Him With my heart's Silencesmiles. ~

My heart's Silence-questions God promptly answers.

God-Dreams flower In my heart's Silence-dawn.

My mind Vehemently disliked My silence-heart. Now my mind Is enamoured of My silence-heart.

I silenced My mind with light. I silenced My vital with might. I silenced My heart with purity. I silenced My body with duty.

My silence-soul Sows, My silence-heart Grows. My silence-vital Receives, My silence-body Achieves.

A life of surrender In silence soars. A heart of gratitude In silence triumphs.

> My silence-heart Is my matchless Meditationcompanion.

A silence-heart Is the home Of a tension-free mind.

God needs My silence-heart And not My sound-mind.

The only way I can serve my Lord Is through My silenceheart.

God tells me that My only home Is God's Silence-Heart.

I am a God-worshipping petal From my blossoming Silenceheart-flower. ~

My silence-heart Has cured all my turmoils, Inner and outer.

I am safe Only when I am inside My own inner silenceheart.

Only God has the key To unlock My silence-heart.

A silence-heart Is always the winner In the inner world.

God's Presence Is most prominent In my silencebreath-heart.

Nothing can be as rich And powerful As the silence of the heart. I must cultivate Nature's silence Inside my heart.

The silence of the heart Begins When the noise of the mind Ends.

A man of prayer Eventually becomes A heart of silencedelight.

I do not need A head full of ideas. What I need Is a heart of silence. ~

When you live In the heart of silence, Impossibility does not exist.

In silence My heart-life Prepares my lectures. In silence My soul-light Composes my songs. In silence My God-love Perfects my life.

Silence Is my soul's Hearthome.

God sends Our gratitude-heart On a silence-paradise-journey.

The silence of the mind Is powerful. The silence of the heart Is fruitful. The silence of the soul Is Godful.

The address Of God's Heart Is Infinity's Silence.

~ SILENCE ~

Silence within, sound without

Silence within, sound without. Silence-Eternity within, Sound-Infinity without. Silence-Eternity-Dream within, Sound-Infinity-Reality without. Silence is God the Creator. Sound is God the creation. Silence is the progress-delight of God the Creator. Sound is the successheight of God the creation. Silence is never, never afraid of sound, but sound is always afraid of Eternity's and Immortality's vastness-silence. My silence-heart-life is a non-stop aspirationflight to my transcendental Goal-the Goal of the ever-transcending Beyond. My sound-mindlife quite often carries me into a tenebrous indolence-coma. With my silence-heart, I always claim God as my own, very own. With my sound-mind, at times I praise God and at times I blame God, depending on my success-smiles and failure-cries. When my sound-life lives in the shackles of bondage, when I live only in my buried hopes, at that time my silence-heart comes to the fore and inspires me with new hope, new inspiration, new aspiration and new dedication to go and visit my Lord's Forgiveness-Heart, Compassion-Eye and Protection-Feet. My silence-soul is the only teacher that teaches me how to speak to God and how to listen to God devotedly, soulfully and unconditionally. Man's eternal question: "Where is God?" God's eternal question: "How to please man?" Silence has the answer to these questions. Indeed, silence is the answer. Silence, silence!

Meditation Technique To Develop a Silence-Heart

Question: How does one meditate?

Sri Chinmoy: There are two principal ways to meditate. One can either silence the mind or one can empty the heart. When one silences the mind, the divine Reality, the highest Reality, can flow in and through the mind. When emotional desires and wrong movements from the vital are emptied from the heart, then the heart is ready to receive Peace, Light and Bliss in abundant measure. So by silencing the mind or by emptying the heart one can have a good meditation.

Slow down the thought-current. Every thought or idea that enters into your mind you have to silence. If you cannot silence it, then try to slow down its speed. If some current of thought is entering inot you very rapidly and you cannot stop it altogether, then try at least to slow it down. And eventually you will try to silence it.
