

Our Quality for the month of April 2017:

LOVE & SERVE

Chg.
Aug. 22nd. 2013

What are the essential Necessities of spirituality? Love and serve.

A loving heart and a serving life Shall always succeed.

Each day is a golden opportunity to love the divine in us And serve the divine in others.

To complete The golden dream of peace, Selflessly serve And unconditionally love.

There is a God-loving And
God-serving Divine Hero
Within every heart.

The very nature of the heart
Is to love God the Creator
And serve God the creation.

World-peace Will automatically dawn If we do not try to understand Mankind, But only love and serve God the creation in mankind.

Love! You will know What the human life Is all about.
Serve! You will know What the divine life Is all about.

To love is to conquer Without danger. To serve is to conquer Without pride.
To surrender is to conquer
Without error.

The finite loves to serve the Infinite.

Love the world With your heart's dreams. Serve the world With your life's promises.

No harm in trying To love and serve the world In a new way.

When I love God And serve God, There can be no risk.

To serve and never be tired,
Is love.

Heaven descends When I consciously And soulfully serve. Earth ascends When I unreservedly And unconditionally love.

Better to love than to be loved. Better to serve than to be served. Better to dance the dance of oneness than to sing the song of togetherness.

If you just love and serve God, Then God will take care Of your nature's transformation.

God is now setting Not only new But also high standards
For those who want to love Him And serve Him In His own Way.

Do not focus on your weaknesses.

God wants my willingness and not my capacity To love Him and serve Him.

Life can change in an instant If the heart is ready To love and serve God Unconditionally.

I came into the world Not to conquer the world, But to love and serve the world.

Learning cures nothing.
Aspiring cures a few things.
Serving cures many things.
Loving cures everything.

Love the world inwardly;
Serve the world outwardly.
Lo, you have become free.

God wants us Not only to love and serve Him, But also to be His partners In His Cosmic Game.

Everybody can peacefully coexist If they have a God-loving heart And a God-serving life.

I have only two responsibilities: one is to serve God everywhere, the other is to make myself good and to love all.
