I AM God's Child

*Chg.
Aug. 22nd. 2013*

Remember who you are. You are God's chosen child — Remember!

I am God's child. I embody the Truth. God is my Child. I reveal the Truth. I am the child of God's endless Concern. God is the Child of my breathless meditation.
~

Life has only one question: Do I really want to be God's supremely chosen child?
~

My mind is a sleeping Child of God.

My heart is a crying Child of God.

My soul is a self-giving Child of God.

And I am a dreaming Child of God.
~

I am a child of Heaven.
Therefore
I dream.

I am a child of earth.
Therefore
I serve.

I am a child of sound.
Therefore
I grow.

I am a child of silence.
Therefore
I glow.

I am a child of God.
Therefore
I really am.
~

The true Master Says,
"Multiply and heighten Your aspiration-flames, If you want your heart To be God's fondness-child."
~

Only a sleeplessly and breathlessly God-hungry heart Is God's fondest child.
~

Nobody can be a supremely chosen Child of God Unless he has a magnanimous heart And a self-giving life.
~

A God-gratitude-heart Is God's fondest child.
~

Each heart was born To be a choice child of God.
~

The soul is a child of God the Dreamer, God the Lover And God the Transformer.
~

Be an eternal child. Only an eternal child Can appreciate Divinity within and divinity without. Only an eternal child Can make inner and outer progress To satisfy God in His own Way.
~

To be the most favourite Child of God, We must always dream God-dreams.
~

Love simplicity, Sincerity and purity, And you will become God's choice child immediately.
~

My heart is bursting With joy and pride That I am a choice child Of God On this earth planet.
~

Cry like a child until God the Mother arrives.
~

My heart, I love you. Why? Because you are More than willing To take care of my mind, The completely spoiled child In God's Family.
~

I wish to be a child of God's Compassion And not a child of His Power.
~

Every day I feel that I am A newborn child in God's Lap.
~

I meditate to become a perfect child of God.
~

The easiest way to please God Is to come to God as a child.
~

Each child born on earth Is a unique promise of God to God Himself.
~

Dive deep within Only to discover that you are a supremely chosen child.
~

To be a special child of God, Change your name to A sleepless God-gratitude-heart.

I AM God's Child

Question: How can I be God's child and how can I be God's soldier?

Sri Chinmoy: You can be God's child if you know how to offer a cry of gratitude to God inside your heart. You can be God's soldier if you know how to offer a smile of fortitude to God inside your soul. Try, you can and you will succeed.

Question: How can I know God's Will all the time?

Sri Chinmoy: You can know God's Will all the time if you learn how to cry like a soulful child, smile like the glorious morning and flow like a murmuring river.

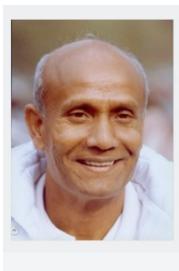

Question: Is there ever a time when negative thoughts stop coming into one's mind?

Sri Chinmoy: Certainly. That time is bound to come. In the meantime you must try not to think negatively. Do not think, "I am a sinner of the first water; I will never be able to realise God. My inner life will never be inundated with infinite Light and Bliss." You should think positively: "I am God's chosen child. He will make me a perfect image of Himself. He will proclaim His Message in me and through me. I will be His chosen instrument, a perfect channel of God." With these positive thoughts you will soon succeed.

We have to know what we want. We want God the omniscient, omnipotent and omnipresent. If we are approaching Him through love, devotion and surrender, we shall eventually become one with Him positively, convincingly and most fulfillingly. We can consciously make ourselves feel that we are God's child and that we have within us everything that He has: His infinite Treasure of Peace, Bliss and Power is inside us. We have only to uncover it. These positive ideas will put a definite end to our negative thoughts.

In India there was a great spiritual Master named Sri Ramakrishna, who used to say, "If you say you are a thief and a sinner, then you will forever remain a thief and a sinner. But if you say, 'I have repeated God's Name, I am God's child,' then how can you continue to do wrong?" Nothing on earth or in Heaven can hold you back if you have faith in your Source. The highest aspiration of your inner divinity will carry you toward the goal.

Positive thoughts are needed at every moment of your existence in order to destroy your negative thoughts. Then, when the flame of aspiration climbs high, higher, highest, you will see that you possess a purifying fire that will burn away all your negative thoughts. From now on try to climb high and dive deep into your inner being and from there bring your adamant willpower to the fore. Once you attack your negative thoughts with your inner will, the will of the soul, all negative and destructive thoughts can easily be annihilated.
