

Our Quality for the month of January 2017:

PURPOSE

*Life is given to each human being for a very special purpose.
This secret each human being must discover for himself.*

Is there any earthly problem
That does not have A purifying and illumining purpose?

Meditation Increases life's intensity And shows us life's true purpose.

The only purpose of my life Is to grow world-oneness-plants
Inside my aspiration-heart-garden.

It is God who has made the world Beautiful, But it is we who must utilise it For the right purpose.

The souls come around to give divine purposes to each human being.

The sole purpose of my life Is to go back once more To my peace-home-heart.

Just because the past Has not given me everything, God has created the present. And even the present has a higher purpose: To make the future
better.

There is no such thing
As a little effort.
In God's Eye, everything that we do
Is meaningful and purposeful.
Therefore,
Each and every effort-incident
in life
Is supremely significant.

The main purpose of a God-lover Is to inspire his fellow travellers To surpass themselves.

My heart's ancient realisation:
Death is not death But a new life With a new purpose — To please God.

For year and years My heart
has been studying At patience-school To know the purpose Of human life.

The very purpose Of inner aspiration-beauty Is to be shared With the rest of the world.

Offer your heart's gratitude
To the soul of your country.
Not by chance were you born
there,
But to fulfil God's special Purpose.

If you do not have A divine tenacity of purpose, Then you can never fulfil God In His own Way.

The very purpose Of inner
aspiration-beauty Is to be shared With the rest of the world.

My Eternity's Beloved Pilot
Supreme, I know, I know, I came into the world For only one purpose: To give You the utmost Joy In your own Way.

Only from the realisationsummit Does this world of ours
look Meaningful and purposeful.

There are many marathon-questions In life, But the only sprint-answers are these: A hopeful heart And a purposeful soul.

The very purpose of time Is to lead mankind forward, Not backward, To its supreme destination.

If there is any purpose in thinking, It is so the thinking process itself Can try to transcend Its own extremely limited existence-reality.

Only for one purpose I live on earth: I want to feel my life's Gratitude-breath Inside my Lord's Heart-Smile.

The glowing purpose of your life
Is to run fast, faster, fastest Towards the farthest and brightest Goal.

The sole purpose of my life Is to go back once more To my peace-
home-heart.

To enter into the Kingdom Of Peace, Light and Bliss Is the real purpose Of our aspiration-life.

PURPOSE

Life has only one purpose: to know what the Goal is and then to throw oneself — body, vital, mind and heart, everything that you have and you are — into the Goal. Our purpose is to go up and also to dive deep within. If you want to go up or dive deep, what will you do? Either cultivate tears inside your heart or bring into your life the smiles of your soul. Either through tears or through smiles you can fulfil the purpose of your life.

The purpose of human life

The purpose of the animal life is the quest for individuality and separativity. The purpose of human life is the quest for unity, and not a sense of separativity. The purpose of divine life is the quest for perfection — perfection in the inner world, perfection in the outer world, perfection in God's entire creation. The purpose of the Supreme's Life is the quest for satisfaction, the satisfaction that nourishes the body-reality of His creation and the soul-reality of His ever-transcending Vision.

Animal life is always hurtful. Human life is always doubtful. Divine life is always soulful. The Supreme's Life is always fruitful.

The animal life tells me that by fighting I will get everything. The human life tells me that by becoming clever I can get everything. The divine life tells me that by giving everything I shall become everything that I want to become and, something more, that I shall please God in His own Way. The Supreme's Life tells me that by oneness-spreading I shall not only become everything, but I shall be able to offer my all-becoming gift as a boon to the aspiring mankind.

Question: Yoga says that God acts in and through man. If we can feel this truth and live this truth, will we be able to better understand the problems of the world?

Sri Chinmoy: If you can offer all your actions, good and bad, to God, then the problems that you are seeing all around you will no longer be problems. You will see that they are only experiences that the Inner Pilot is having in and through you. He is the Doer, He is the experiences and, at the same time, He is the Observer. The moment you can surrender the action and the fruit of your action, your part is over. Then you will see that the way you see the truth is not the way that God sees the truth. He sees the truth from a different angle, from a very high plane of Consciousness. When you become one with Him, you will see that each action has a purpose. Now, nothing seems to have a purpose; everything, everyone seems like a mad elephant trampling here and there. But a day will come when if you budge even an inch, you will understand the reason for it. Outwardly, we see that the Game is very painful; but when we are able to enter into the soul, we find that there is a purpose which only the soul can tell us. The heart is convinced that there is a purpose, but what the actual purpose is, only the soul can say.
